3 Ethics CEU's Offered!

Acting Out: Learning BACB Ethics and Problem-Solving Strategies through Interactive Team-based Learning with Wayne Fuqua, Ph.D., BCBA-D

Friday, April 21, 2017

Session 1: 8:30-11:30am • Session 2: 1-4pm

Donald E. Stephens Convention Center
5555 N. River Road, Rosemont, IL 60018

This workshop is designed primarily for BCBA/BCaBA practitioners who have familiarity with the Professional and Ethical Compliance Code for Behavior Analysts from the Behavior Analysis Certification Board (BACB).

Emphasis will be placed on dynamic small group activities and discussion, role plays, guided practice and fluency building exercises. Participants should be prepared to describe and discuss real world ethics cases in a manner that protects the identity of those individuals involved in the ethics cases.

At the conclusion of the workshop, participants will be able to: (1) identify and analyze ethical challenges; (2) identify and troubleshoot strategies to resolve ethical challenges; (3) refine their skills to tactfully and effectively resolve ethical challenges, and (4) identify team based learning strategies that can be used to promote BACB ethics in work and educational settings.
