

Parents of Teens with ASD Group

First Thursday of the Month
6-7:30pm

AHSS Autism Center - Northbrook
85 Revere Dr., Suite AA

- October 5, 2017
- November 2, 2017
- December 7, 2017

Are you a parent of adolescents (13-18) diagnosed with Asperger's Syndrome or High Functioning Autism Spectrum Disorder?

Autism Home Support Services offers a parent support group for you to share your joys and challenges of parenting teenagers with ASD, gain knowledge and create friendships in a supportive environment.

AHSS' therapist, Laura M. Koerner, LCPC will facilitate the group by discussing relevant topics, bringing in educational information and providing presentations on topics desired by the group.

Note: Child care will not be provided; this group is for adults only.

Cost

$20 per family (up to two adults) at the door

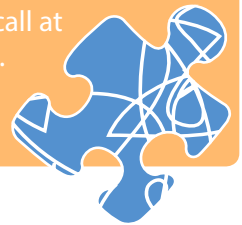

RSVP

to Laura at lkoerner@autismhomesupport.com

Please register in advance.

Questions?

Please email Laura or call at 847-564-0822 ext. 136.

Laura Koerner, Counselor, MA, LCPC has over 10 years of experience in therapeutic day schools with children and adolescents with autism and other emotional needs. Skilled in working with individuals with ASD, ADHD & anxiety, depression, and school & behavioral issues, she will work closely with your family, including sibling work, to identify the underlying needs of your child. Laura also collaborates with schools to develop/modify IEPs and 504 Plans to support the student's academic and emotional needs. Laura is experienced in working with children, adolescents, and young adults with Autism Spectrum Disorder, Asperger's Syndrome, ADHD, and anxiety.

Illinois | Michigan | Colorado

Empowering Progress Toward Hopes and Dreams!