

Planning for the Future of Children & Adults with Intellectual, Developmental Disabilities, and/or Mental Illness

A parent-to-parent, sibling-to-sibling, heart-to-heart presentation

Thursday, October 26, 2017
6:30-8pm

Autism Home Support Services
5 Revere Dr., Suite 120, Northbrook, IL 60062
Or Attend Online!

When you have a child with special needs, planning for that child's future can be an overwhelming task. Where do you begin? Who has the answers?

This is a unique presentation, offered as a public service by Rubin Law. The topics to be covered include:

- The who, what, where, when, why and how of Government Benefits, including SSI, SSDI, Medicaid, Medicare.
- Special Needs Estate & Future Planning, the who, what, where, when, why and how of:
 - Types of and appropriate uses of Special Needs Trusts;
 - Gifting by grandparents & extended family members;
 - The impact of divorce & child support on government benefits;
 - Determining the appropriate amount to leave;
 - The new ABLE Act Account;
 - The importance of including the "Typical" Siblings in the Planning;
 - and more!
- There will be time Q & A.

This event is free!

Can't attend in person?
Attend online via webinar!

Register Online at autismhomesupport.com/events

Registration closes on Wednesday, October 25
Please register in advance.

Presentations by Attorneys Brian & Benjamin Rubin

Attorney Brian Rubin, the founder of Rubin Law, a former IRS Agent and former IRS Estate Tax Attorney, has been a practicing attorney in private practice since 1978. He is the parent of three children, one of whom, Mitchell, has Autism. Brian's law practice, since 1982, when Mitchell was one year old, has been dedicated to serving the legal and future planning needs of his fellow families of children and adults with intellectual disabilities, developmental disabilities, and/or mental illness.

Attorney Benjamin (Benji) Rubin, Brian's youngest son, Mitchell's "little/big" brother, graduated from the University of Illinois College of Law, Magna Cum Laude, received his undergraduate degree from Northwestern University, and currently is pursuing his Graduate

Law Degree, an LLM (Tax), at Northwestern University. Benji, a partner in the law firm, joined the practice in 2010.

Illinois | Michigan | Colorado

Empowering Progress Toward Hopes and Dreams!